

Eurofield Information Solutions (EIS)

Level 3, 8 Help St
Sydney NSW 2067
Australia

Phone: 02 9411 3711
Fax: 02 9411 3777

Eurofield Information Solutions (EIS) is an award winning software technology company, and the developer of a market leading electronic reference publishing and distribution solution, eComPress. EIS has produced digital solutions for health in Australia and internationally for over 15 years.

eComPress has received numerous awards, including the Australian Technology Showcase (ATS) Award and a Consensus Software Award. EIS is also a Certified Microsoft Sales Partner. The only coding reference you need - TurboCoder.

TurboCoder is the most cost effective and practical coding solution to meet the demands of efficient, accurate medical record coding. It will enable you to code medical records faster and more accurately than ever before.

ICD-10-AM/ACHI/ACS Tenth Edition is now available for the platform of your choice - Windows desktop, iPhone, iPad or Android device. TurboGrouper is the new coding and grouping solution you need in one package.

The familiar TurboCoder interface means separations can be grouped quickly and efficiently with coding and grouping path transparency. TurboGrouper - the power to code and group FASTER and more accurately. Key

Features:

- Coding Rules are now enhanced with individual indexing to improve navigation, searching and browsing.
- Complete OFF-LINE replacement for the books
- One click coding - one step from Index to Tabular
- Find what you need easily and quickly - GUARANTEED
- Turbosearch provides an autocomplete facility after you key in just three characters and corrects misspelled terms

Windows Features:

- User Notes provide a powerful and easy-to-use facility to share notes with other users using e-mail or LAN
- MultiView - view up to four volumes on-screen at the same time.
- Drag-and-Drop codes into reports
- available in single user and customised network licensing

Visit Website

Send Message

Email Friend